SUE LEE IS A THIRD-GENERATION SAN FRANCISCAN, BORN AND RAISED IN THE RICHMOND.

Sue grew up in The Richmond and attended Madison (Claire Lilienthal) Elementary, Roosevelt Junior High, and Washington High. She graduated from UC Santa Cruz, then returned home to teach English to Chinese immigrants and begin a long career in community service. She still lives with her husband and son in the Inner Richmond.

Sue Lee is an experienced city planner.

Sue has worked to make our community better throughout her career. After the Loma Prieta earthquake, she got San Francisco back on track by coordinating our relief efforts. As a planning commissioner for the past six years, Sue mapped out policies that kept our community vibrant.

Sue Lee helped create the Richmond District Neighborhood Center.

As neighborhood activist, Sue was a leader in the effort to create, and has served as president of, the multicultural Richmond District Neighborhood Center, which has served our families for 28 years.
