San Francisco Chronicle

Twitter moves to Mid-Market

Not only is a hugely influential company settling in the blighted section of the city's grand boulevard, but Twitter also should be an anchor tenant that increases the chances of others moving there. [5/31/11]

San Francisco's $6.8 billion budget approved with great praise

"We worked through very difficult issues, but we showed that we can come together to get things done without enormous drama," Board of Supervisors President David Chiu said. [SF Examiner, 7/19/11]

Chiu articulates a vision for city government that has things running more smoothly.... [SF Bay Guardian, 6/15/11]

In a building where conflict is status quo, this cool, measured style has set Chiu apart from his colleagues and...helped change the tenor at City Hall. [SF Chronicle, 11/29/09]

David Chiu is leading San Francisco to a better future

David Chiu is a new kind of leader. As President of the Board of Supervisors, David knows how to rise above the political bickering at City Hall and build consensus to create jobs, balance the budget, and solve problems.

David understands how to manage the city. He has proven that he can get the Board of Supervisors and the Mayor to work together. As a result, San Francisco is now working better for all of us.

AS PRESIDENT OF THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS, DAVID:

Reformed San Francisco's budget process by requiring our city to live within our means and adopt responsible financial practices; authored ethics legislation that provides greater transparency at City Hall.

Championed policies that kept Twitter and many local businesses in San Francisco, protecting thousands of jobs.

Helped lead efforts to bring the America's Cup to San Francisco and revitalize the Hunters Point Shipyard, bringing over a billion dollars in revenues and tens of thousands of jobs to San Francisco.
