The D.A. San Francisco Deserves

SHARMIN BOCK FOR DISTRICT ATTORNEY

A veteran prosecutor with a passion for justice

“AN ARSENAL OF COMPASSION”

That’s what one newspaper called Assistant District Attorney Sharmin Bock—the tough, fair and no-nonsense prosecutor who has earned national recognition for her fight to protect victims of violent crime. After 22 years as a prosecutor, she’s now bringing her passion for justice to the next level as a candidate for San Francisco District Attorney.

22 YEARS IN THE COURTROOM AND A 95% CONVICTION RATE

A veteran prosecutor, Sharmin has appeared in the courtroom over one thousand times on cases ranging from misdemeanors to murder. Her conviction rate on felony cases brought to trial is over 95%. Throughout her career, Sharmin’s advocacy for victims of violent crime has always come first.

NATIONAL LEADER RESCUING GIRLS FROM FORCED PROSTITUTION

As a mother and prosecutor who has specialized in crimes against women and children, Sharmin knows what it takes to protect children and families. She is a national leader in the fight to keep kids safe from sex predators—and has rescued girls as young as 11 from sexual slavery.

A DNA EXPERT WHO CAN FIX OUR FAILING CRIME LAB

Sharmin is a recognized expert on DNA / cold cases. She is also an experienced manager who leads top attorneys to implement criminal justice reforms within a District Attorney’s office. She has headed up critical units including Sex Predators, Special Operations, Policy Development and Public Integrity.

“No-nonsense deputy D.A. cracks down on pimps”

Oakland Tribune, April 23, 2008

“...cold cases no longer on the back burner”

Oakland Tribune, October 14, 2009

“Finally, a prosecutor leaps into D.A.’s race”

INTRODUCING SHARMIN BOCK

“Sharmin Bock is exactly the kind of independent, experienced prosecutor San Francisco needs right now.”

—CONGRESSWOMAN JACKIE SPEIER

Sharmin Bock has lived in San Francisco since she was four years old. After graduating from Georgetown Law School in 1988, Bock returned home to San Francisco. Turning down lucrative offers from downtown law firms, Sharmin went to work as an Assistant District Attorney. Today, she has 22 years of courtroom experience, with over 1,000 courtroom appearances representing the People of California on cases ranging from misdemeanors to murder. Sharmin currently lives in the Richmond District with her husband and two children. This is her first time running for public office.
