FOR MAYOR

INDEPENDENT. EFFECTIVE.

Not beholden to anyone.

I'm asking you to declare your independence.

It's time for a change. I need your help to change the way that government operates — if you want to see real change in San Francisco without power brokers calling the shots.

My parents were interned during the war and lost everything. They taught me not to be bitter, to get an education and stand up for what is right.

I have made SF my home for two decades and have a family here.

I've taken on tough issues that no one else would touch, like pension reform and police misconduct. I have a plan to create more jobs, and a way to pay for it.

We need a mayor who makes decisions for the people of this City, not for themselves. I'm asking for your vote.

If you want the status quo, vote for someone else.

If you want change, then join me.

The first three things I will do as Mayor:

- set aside $40 million per year to invest in 1,000 micro-loans for small businesses, which will create over 7,800 new jobs for San Franciscans.
- restore summer school for all children.
- replace the current payroll tax, which discourages hiring of new workers.

And I have a sustainable plan to pay for them — pension reform.

Proposition D, placed on the ballot by 50,000 San Franciscans, will save $1.7 billion over the next 10 years, money that can be reinvested in our schools, basic services and jobs.

I have built a track record of real results that make me the best candidate for Mayor

- Won the prestigious Managerial Excellence Award in 2002, given to the City's best manager.
- Received the American Bar Association's national award for best government law office.
- Brought the Public Defender's office in under budget for eight out of nine years.
- Founded the MAGIC Programs to help youth and families in economically challenged neighborhoods succeed.

I need your help to do what's best for San Francisco and make sure things get done the right way.
