

PHILTING
For Mayor

Ting is a champion for innovative and good government policies in San Francisco.

As Assessor-Recorder of San Francisco, Phil Ting is a solutions-focused, innovative reformer whose efforts have enabled him to generate over $290 million in new revenue for San Francisco and by making sure everyone pays their fair share in property taxes.

Ting was appointed and later elected in 2005, becoming San Francisco's highest-ranking Chinese-American official. He has focused on reducing the assessment backlog from four to two years and every dollar that his office brings in means more money for the city to fund crucial programs for children, seniors and families.
