The Difference is Independence

Watch out for Chris Cunnie

Republican-backed candidate opposed police reform and diversity promotions

- OPPOSED POLICE REFORM. Chris Cunnie led the campaign against Proposition H, passed by voters in 2003, which strengthened civilian oversight and police accountability<sup>[1]</sup>.
- OPPOSED PROMOTION OF WOMEN AND MINORITIES. Cunnie filed a lawsuit against a plan to increase promotions of women and minorities to Captains in the Police Department<sup>[2]</sup>.
- BACKED BY REPUBLICANS. Cunnie is endorsed by the San Francisco Republican Party<sup>[3]</sup>.

- ✓ Independent Oversight. Ross is the only candidate who is not part of the “old boys network” and can provide the same independent leadership that Sheriff Hennessey has for over 30 years.
- ✓ Law Enforcement Experience. Ross is a SF Police Academy graduate who served 9 years as an armed investigator for the District Attorney with an advanced federal credential.
- ✓ Public Safety Leadership. Ross helped create the Reentry Council to tackle recidivism, passed landmark community policing laws requiring SFPD foot patrols, led citywide police accountability reforms and reduced violent crime in his district.

“Supervisor Ross Mirkarimi has the endorsement of Sheriff Hennessey to carry on his legacy.”
